We focus on the law so you can focus on your business.

Ivy Law, inspired by the word ivy meaning evergreen growth, was founded in 2018 by members with legal proficiency and substantial business insights. We follow a simple pragmatic principle. Our team focuses on the legalities so you can focus on what's important to you, whether it's a new product launch, business expansion or day-to-day commercial operations.

Ivy Law provides legal support to companies and individuals for joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, dispute resolution, regulatory compliance, corporate commercial and other practice areas, for both domestic and cross border transactions. We have worked with clients across a wide range of industries including retail, real estate, hospitality, startups and e-commerce.

The insolvency and bankruptcy practice in collaboration with specialized experts are adept to handle complex commercial matters across forums, including the Supreme Court, High Courts as well as many Tribunals, such as National Company Law Tribunal ("NCLT"), National Company Law Appellate Tribunal ("NCLAT"). Since the advent of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 ("IBC"), work has increased manifold before the NCLT and NCLAT. Our lawyers have the experience of acting in various jurisdictions in India and can seamlessly advise and assist clients on all elements involved in all kinds of work before NCLT and NCLAT.

Broadly, our scope of work in handling insolvency and bankruptcy matters includes:

- Assisting in matters pertaining to IBC and Companies Act, 2013, before NCLT and NCLAT.
- Drafting demand notices, both general and in statutory format.
- Drafting various petitions, including those on behalf of financial creditors and operational creditors.
- Advising a number of acquirers, distressed companies and industry professionals on the implications of IBC.
- Drafting replies and other pleading/applications and drafting appeals before NCLAT and Supreme Court, as well as appearing and arguing matters before NCLT, NCLAT and the Supreme Court.
